

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Tolsa Renee Travis-Johnson ,
Debtor(s).

Case No. 10-50756 ASW
Chapter 7

Monterey County Public Guardian, as Conservator of the Person and Estate of Fujiko Verity,

Adversary No. 10-05106

Plaintiff(s),

ORDER SETTING TELEPHONIC
CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE
IN SAN JOSE

vs.

Tolsa Renee Travis-Johnson,
Defendant(s).

This action having been assigned to the undersigned Judge, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Date and Time of Case Management Conference: A telephonic case management conference will be held on September 3, 2010 at 2:15 P.M. Instructions for telephonic appearances are attached and are incorporated as part of this order.
2. Participants: This Order applies to counsel for all parties and those individuals representing themselves. A party representing himself or herself must comply with the provisions of this order.

1 3. Preconference Discussion: Participants shall confer at least 14 days prior to the 2 telephonic case management conference regarding:

3 A. Jurisdiction and venue; the substance of the parties' claims and defenses and 4 the definition of genuinely controverted issues; anticipated motions; further
5 proceedings, including setting of dates for discovery cut-off, pre-trial and trial;
6 prospects for settlement; and whether the case should be assigned to the Bankruptcy
7 Dispute Resolution Program; and

8 B. Whether the parties are in a position to proceed productively at the telephonic 9 case management conference and whether a personal appearance will be made.

10 4. Continuances: The telephonic case management conference will not be 11 continued without leave of court. However, the telephonic case management conference may be 12 continued for good cause shown, such as conflict with another court appearance, ongoing settlement 13 discussions or representations by counsel that the telephonic case management conference is 14 premature.

15 To request a continuance, a participant should submit, at least 10 days prior to the 16 telephonic case management conference:

17 A. A stipulation signed by all parties to the action or a declaration setting forth 18 the reasons a continuance is requested, the positions of all participants with respect to 19 a continuance and proposed time frames for the continued hearing; and

20 B. A proposed order continuing the telephonic case management conference
21 which incorporates all other provisions of this order. THE PROPOSED ORDER
22 SHALL CONTAIN THE FOLLOWING LANGUAGE: "EACH PARTY SHALL
23 FILE AND SERVE ON ALL OTHER PARTIES AN UPDATED CASE
24 MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE STATEMENT AT LEAST 7 DAYS BEFORE
25 THE CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE."

26 If a request for a continuance has not been filed at least 10 days prior to the telephonic
27 case management conference, the case management conference will go forward.

28 5. Appearing Personally: The Court prefers and expects that participants appear by

1 telephone. However, parties representing themselves who are not able to arrange a telephonic
2 appearance may appear personally. If a party hires counsel shortly before the conference, and the 3 attorney has not been granted a continuance, an appearance is still required.

4 Counsel who have an appearance in another court at the same time, or are conducting other
5 business in the courthouse, may appear personally. However, counsel should note that the case
6 management conferences will be called in the order set forth on the calendar and counsel must be 7 present when the case is called. Counsel who expect to seek compensation from the estate should 8 also note that the Court may not compensate personal appearances.

9 6. Case Management Conference Statements: At least 7 days prior to the telephonic
10 case management conference, all parties shall file, jointly or separately, a CASE MANAGEMENT
11 CONFERENCE STATEMENT with the court, not to exceed four pages in length, addressing the 12 following:

- 13 A A statement of the date and time that counsel conferred as required by this 14 order;
- 15 B. A concise statement summarizing each legal theory on which the plaintiff or 16 defendant relies and a brief general statement of the facts which support this 17 theory;
- 18 C. The position of the parties with respect to Bankruptcy Rules 7008 and 19 7012(b);
- 20 D. Proposed discovery and proposed cut-off dates for discovery and pre-trial 21 motions;
- 22 E. The estimated time for trial and desired trial date; and
- 23 F. Whether alternative dispute resolution is desired by the parties; and
- 24 G. A statement by any non-governmental corporate party to this action 25 identifying all its parent corporations and listing any publicly-held company that 26 owns 10% or more of the party's stock. This statement shall be supplemented within 27 a reasonable time of any change in the information.

28 THE CAPTION SHALL CONTAIN THE DATE AND TIME OF THE TELEPHONIC CASE

1 MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE.

2 7. Scheduling Order: At the case management conference, dates will be established,
3 such as for the close of discovery, for a trial setting conference, or for trial. Thereafter, the court
4 will enter a scheduling order.

5 8. Judgment: Final judgment shall be entered by the Bankruptcy Court unless within 6 60 days after the initial case management conference the court rules that this is a non-core
7 proceeding and final judgment should be entered by the District Court.

8 9. Failure of Defendant(s) to Appear: In the event the defendant(s) has not appeared
9 in the action, the plaintiff should nonetheless go forward with the telephonic case management
10 conference unless a default judgement, as distinguished from the clerk's entry of default, has been 11 entered more than 10 days prior to the date of the telephonic case management conference. If a 12 default judgment has not been entered and no appearance is made, the Court will either close the 13 case or issue an order to show cause why the adversary proceeding should not be dismissed for lack 14 of prosecution. The order to show cause generally will be heard within sixty days of the scheduled
15 telephonic case management conference.

16 10. Contact with the Court: The telephonic case management conference will proceed
17 unless it has been continued by order of the court or the adversary proceeding has been disposed of 18 by final order (for example, by a judgment or order of dismissal). Any questions as to whether a
19 matter has been disposed of by final order should be addressed to the undersigned Judge's
20 Courtroom Deputy, Tanya Bracegirdle, who can be reached by calling (408) 278-7556. Please note
21 that merely advising the Court orally or in writing that an adversary proceeding has been settled, or 22 the entry of a Court order authorizing the Trustee or the Debtor to enter into a settlement agreement,
23 or even a Court order approving a settlement agreement, are usually insufficient to remove a matter
24 from the Court's Case Management Calendar. There typically needs to be a judgment, an order
25 dismissing the case, or an order stating that the case shall be closed (because the parties require no 26 further action by the Court). The judgment(s) or order(s) (or combination thereof) should deal with 27 all parties to the case before the case may be closed.

28 If counsel has filed timely a request for a continuance, a default judgment, or a stipulation for

1 a judgment or dismissal, but has not yet received the order back from the court, counsel should not
2 contact the Judge's chambers less than 7 days prior to the case management conference but should 3 presume that the telephonic case management conference will proceed if counsel has been contacted
4 by Court Conference (which can be reached at (866) 582-6878) to confirm participation in the 5 conference call.

6 11. Pro Bono Services Available: Santa Clara University's Alexander Community Law
7 Center has established a project designed to provide representation for Chapter 7 debtors who have
8 been sued in the San Jose Division of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District
9 of California, by companies claiming that credit card debts should be held to be non-dischargeable
10 in bankruptcy.

11 The Program is designed to assist persons who do not have a Bankruptcy attorney - or 12 whose bankruptcy attorney who filed their Chapter 7 petition will not agree to represent them in 13 such an action. The Law Center provides free legal advice and, in some instances, representation.
14 The Law Center cannot represent all such debtors due to income guidelines and other limitations.
15 Persons who would like a free consultation, or who otherwise would like information about this
16 Program, should contact the Law Center at (408) 288-7030 and ask to speak with Mr. Reuben
17 Castillo.

18 Disponibilidad De Servicios Gratuitos: El Centro Comunitario Legal Alexander,
19 cual es parte de la Universidad de Santa Clara, ha establecido un programa para representar a
20 aquellos deudores que se han declarado en bancarrota (Chapter 7) y que han sido demandados ante
21 un tribunal del Distrito del Norte de California, en la División de San José, del Tribunal de
22 Bancarrota de los Estados Unidos. Este programa defendería a los deudores contra compañías que
23 mantienen que las deudas establecidas con tarjetas de crédito no pueden ser disueltas a través de una 24 auto- declaración de bancarrota.

25 Este programa es para ayudar a aquellas personas que no tienen un Abogado de
26 Bancarrota o a aquellas personas cuyos abogado se rehúsan a representarlos en estas demandas
27 después de haberles ayudado a declararse en bancarrota. El Centro Legal provee consejos legales
28 gratuitos y en algunos casos provee representación legal. El Centro Legal no puede representar a

1 todos los deudores que acuden en busca de ayuda debido a que algunas personas sobrepasan un
2 cierto límite de ingresos o por otras razones. Las personas que deseen una consulta gratuita o que
3 deseen saber más sobre este programa pueden llamar al Centro Legal al (408) 288-7030 y preguntar
4 por el Sr. Rueben Castillo.

5 12. Bankruptcy Dispute Resolution Program (BDRP): The Bankruptcy Dispute
6 Resolution Program (BDRP) offers a means to resolve disputes quickly, at less cost and often
7 without the stress and pressure of litigation. Methods include mediation, negotiation, early neutral
8 evaluation and settlement facilitation. Parties wishing assignment to the BDRP or to a judicially
9 supervised Settlement Conference should contact Tanya Bracegirdle at (408) 278-7556. The BDRP
10 procedures are explained in Bankruptcy Local Rule 9040-1 et seq. These procedures and a list of 11 available resolution advocates and their resumes are available in the Clerk's Office.

12 13. Service of Order: The plaintiff shall serve this telephonic case management
13 conference order on all parties and file a proof of service with the court. Plaintiff shall also 14 promptly serve a copy of the Bankruptcy Dispute Resolution Program Information Sheet on all 15 parties. A copy of the Bankruptcy Dispute Resolution Program Information Sheet is available on 16 the Court's web site at www.canb.uscourts.gov and at the Clerk's office.

17 14. Sanctions: The failure of a party to comply timely with the provisions of this order
18 may result in the imposition of sanctions pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7016.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR TELEPHONIC CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES

1. Telephone Procedures To Be Followed

Telephonic appearances for telephonic case management conferences will be arranged through Court Conference. Court Conference is an independent conference call company that arranges conference calls on a national and international basis for business.

Participants will be contacted at the telephone number set forth at the top of the pleading with the participant's identification. All participants shown on the court's calendar 7 days prior to the telephonic case management conference will be contacted by Court Conference at least two days prior to the telephonic case management conference to confirm participation in the conference call and payment arrangements.

Attorneys who are unavailable when called by Court Conference MUST return the call within 24 hours. The decision whether or not to appear by telephone MUST be made at this time and, if non-responsive, you will not be added to the call at the last minute. Do not argue with Court Conference or request special treatment. Court Conference's function is no more than to offer you the opportunity to appear by telephone. Your election to appear by telephone constitutes your agreement for telephonic appearances.

The cost of appearing telephonically is $40.00. Court Conference will arrange payment by the participant either through the use of a major credit card or, in the case of attorneys, may offer to bill for its service. If Court Conference agrees to bill its services, all bills MUST be timely paid.

If you have not been contacted by the second day prior to the telephonic case management conference, participants may contact Court Conference at 1-866-582-6878 to discuss procedures, confirm dates and times, etc. Participants must reference this Court, and the case name and number when calling Court Conference.

At the time of the scheduled telephonic case management conference, Court Conference will contact the participant as prearranged. Court Conference may initiate calls to some participants on a delayed basis to minimize waiting time. All participants MUST be available when called. If the participant is not available when called, you will be billed for the call and the telephonic case management conference will proceed in the participant's absence. The court may impose sanctions as set forth below.

At the time of the telephonic case management conference you will initially be in the listening mode and able to hear the case before yours just as if you were in the courtroom. After your call is connected to the courtroom, the Courtroom Deputy will call the case. The Judge will ask for appearances and direct the manner in which the telephonic case management conference proceeds. Each time a participant speaks, he or she must identify himself or herself for the record. When the Judge informs the participants that the hearing is completed, the participants may disconnect and the next case will be called.

Telephonic appearances are connected directly with the courtroom's public address system and electronic recording equipment so that a normal record is produced. To ensure a quality record, the use of car phones, public telephone booths, or phones in other public places is prohibited except in the most extreme emergencies. Participants should be able to hear all parties without difficulty or echo. The system also allows more than one speaker to be heard so that the Judge can interrupt a speaker to ask a question or redirect the discussion.

2. Sanctions

Telephonic appearances by multiple participants are only possible where there is compliance with every procedural requirement. Sanctions may be imposed when there is any deviation. Sanctions may include dropping the matter from the calendar, continuing the hearing, proceeding in the absence of an unavailable participant, or a monetary sanction of $100 or more. Where Court Conference agrees to bill for its services and the billings are not timely paid attorneys should expect a sanction of $250 to be imposed.
